
CLOCK ON Launching OenNote in Thailand

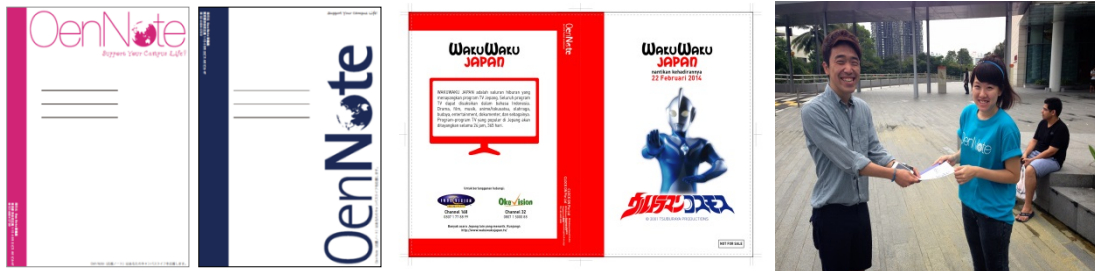

CLOCK ON Pte. Ltd. (80 Robinson Road Singapore, Managing Director; Shota Maeda) announced the launch of a FREE advertisement notepad service to Thailand students. CLOCK ON will kick off the launch by distributing 50,000 notepads to Thailand University, Polytechnic, Secondary, Primary and Pre-schools students this month.

CLOCK ON has partnerships with 29 universities across Bangkok and advertisers can reach students through all of their distribution channels.

Milestones:

- Expanded distribution channels
- 300,000 notepads to be distributed in 2015

Through OenNote distribution in Thailand, CLOCK ON supports the educational efforts of Thailand which is undergoing significant economic development as a country. CLOCK ON also provides a dynamic and effective advertisement strategy for companies that desire to expand their product and brand awareness to the student market.

(OenNote)

It is a notebook for studying, as a Memo and diary through which companies can run advertisements. This service connects students with companies and their products. It is the best media for product announcements for young people, recruitment of students for employment and in building up a company's brand image. First service started in Japan (2008) and is now in Singapore OenNote (2013).
